Meetings and Conferences

The mention of meetings and conferences no longer has to draw dissatisfied sighs from employees and colleagues. In addition to providing space and all of the necessary resources to host a meeting or conference no one in the office will soon forget, Wild Dunes Resort's Island Adventures® recreation program can create a bonding experience by offering team-building events that energize and motivate the group. Specialized meeting coordinators are available to customize your team's experience.

Family Reunions

Wild Dunes understands the importance of family reunions - a chance for family to gather and reminisce or introduce new family members to all of their relatives. The Resort is the perfect spot for a reunion, featuring a host of activities that will create new memories. From two Tom Fazio-designed golf courses, world class tennis, and one of the nation's top-rated recreation programs to nature trails for bike rentals, jogging or a leisurely stroll, many activities can be found throughout the Resort for the family to experience together. And with the spacious Boardwalk Homes, the entire family can stay together under one roof.

Weddings

Whether you choose the spacious, elegantly appointed Sweetgrass Pavilion or decide upon an outdoor sunset reception at the Resort's oceanfront Grand Pavilion, you can be certain your special day will be a memorable one at Wild Dunes Resort. The Resort's event staff works will ensure every detail is attended to, working with top Lowcountry florists, design specialists, cake decorators and more. Before the big day, guests will have access to all of the Resort's wonderful amenities, and your wedding specialist can create specialized itineraries to provide guests with a wonderful vacation experience.

Accommodations

Guests at Wild Dunes have a wide range of choices when it comes to accommodations. Just steps away from the soft sands of the Atlantic Ocean, a number of splendid Boardwalk Homes offer guests all of the comforts of home close to the beach and the Resort's oceanfront pools. The AAA Four Diamond Boardwalk Inn combines the classic elegance of Charleston and the casual atmosphere of the islands, featuring 93 luxurious rooms and suites. If guests are looking for something more private, Wild Dunes has more than 350 vacation homes and condos, as well as the newly constructed Village at Wild Dunes, which features more than 120 luxury rooms and suites.

Dining

The Lowcountry is known the world over for its sophisticated and delicious cuisine and on this point, Wild Dunes does not disappoint. The Sea Island Grill at the Boardwalk Inn presents the freshest local seafood available, chef specialties and the guest's choice of preparation of seafood, steaks or pork chops while dessert options include signature soufflés.

Wild Dunes' newest dining option, The Lettered Olive, blends an upbeat vibe with a casual atmosphere to create the perfect spot for a drink or relaxing dinner. With indoor and outdoor patio seating on the Village Plaza, The Lettered Olive offers a friendly environment for groups. An exhibition kitchen creates a unique dining experience, where guests can watch as chefs prepare an array of delectable meats and seafood with traditional Lowcountry flair.

More casual dining is available at Edgar's Pub in the Links Clubhouse. Overlooking four fairways of the Links Course, Edgar's offers a casual atmosphere complemented by pub-style food and a well-stocked bar. Retreat to Edgar's to unwind with a game of darts or pool with buddies or relax and watch the game in front of one of their flat panel televisions.

If you crave lighter fare, The Dunes Deli is located next to the Harbor Golf Shop and offers light breakfast, deli-style sandwiches, and salads. Duney's at the Grand Pavilion (seasonal) is located oceanfront and offers hot and cold sandwiches, assorted snacks, beverages, seaside cocktails and ice cream specialties.
